New Discoveries and Approaches in the Archaeology of Early Greece

Hilary Term 2018 Mondays at 4 pm Ioannou Lecture Room
Irene S Lemos

15 January
Professor Cathy Morgan (All Souls)

The Central Ionian Islands: changing perspectives on the Early Iron Age?

22 January
Professor Cyprian Broodbank (Cambridge) (with V. Kyriazi, A. Bevan, and I. Petrochilos)

The dynamics of a Greek island city: New fieldwork on Kythera

29 January
Professor Sofia Voutsaki (Groningen)

The North Cemetery at Ayios Vasilios, Laconia and Early Mycenaean society

5 February
Dr Birgitta Eder (OREA, Vienna and Merton College)

The Political Geography of a Mycenaean Region: Kakovatos and Triphyllia

12 February
Professor Joseph Maran (Heidelberg)

Stepping out of the Shadow of Mycenae: The Remarkable Case of Postpalatial Tiryns

19 February
Dr Anastasia Gadolou (Greek Ministry of Culture & Sport)

The formation of religious landscapes in Achaia during the Early Historical Era (10th-7th c. BC.): Political structures and social identities.

26 February
*Dr Reinhard Jung (OREA, Vienna)

Economic background and structures of Italo-Aegean exchange contacts

5 March
Professor Donald Haggis (The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill)

Recent excavations at an Archaic urban center at Azoria, East Crete.

*27 February 1 pm: an extra lecture will be given by Dr Reinhard Jung:

The fall of the Mycenaean palaces – the first locomotive of European history?