

Alexander the Great
Mondays, 9am, Examination Schools
Dr Kathryn Stevens

This lecture series offers a broad overview of the reign of Alexander the Great. It is mainly intended for students taking the Alexander the Great and his Early Successors paper, but all are welcome! Some lectures may be of interest for those studying fourth century Greek History papers, The Hellenistic World, or Rome, Italy and the Hellenistic East.

Lecture handouts and powerpoints will be uploaded to the Canvas page for the series the day before each lecture. The first lecture will not be recorded, but hopefully the rest of the series will be.

If you have any questions, or if you would like to suggest any topics for the series that are not currently covered, please contact kathryn.stevens@ccc.ox.ac.uk

Provisional programme (nb. there may be some changes to the content or order of the list; please check the Canvas page for the latest version):
