

Comparative Philology Graduate Seminar – TT 2024

Work in Progress / Research Colloquium

Convenors:

Tim Barnes, Michele Bianconi, Philomen Probert, Andreas Willi

Lecture Theatre, Centre for Linguistics and Philology, Walton Street
Tuesdays, 2.15-4pm

- Week 2 (30 April)     Eleanor Walsh
“Towards a unified account of the Old Irish verbal complex”
- Week 3 (7 May)     Svetlana Ó Siochfhradha Prešern
“The semantics of Welsh tu (‘side’) in forming complex spatial locutions”
- Week 4 (14 May)     Atticus Mawby
“Old Novgorodian within Slavonic: prehistoric sound change and phylogenetics”
- Week 5 (21 May)     Dillon Kelly
“Semantic interfaces in the riddles of the Rigveda”
- Week 6 (28 May)     Sebastian Kenny
“Language contact in Ezekiel’s Exagoge: the case for pattern replication”
- Week 7 (4 June)     Will Thurlwell
“Remnant case forms and patterns of syncretism in Early West Germanic”

Note also the following event:

Oxford-Cambridge-London Philology Day: Saturday 1 June 2024, 10.30am–3pm
(Worcester College, Memorial Room)

with Oxford contributions by

Althea Sovani (“The infinitive in the Atharvaveda: a post-Ṛgvedic analysis”) and
Luca Raggiunti (“‘Short datives’ in the Homeric poems: a descriptive analysis”)