

Sexuality and Gender in Greece and Rome

Dr B Dignas

MT 2025

The lectures support the undergraduate classes taking place in MT and HT but may also be of interest to undergraduate or graduate students who want to engage with questions of sexuality and gender in any period or context of the Graeco-Roman world. The series is organised as follows: wk1 Concepts and the History of a Subject; wk2: Gender in Text and Image; wk3: Gender Relations (1): Male and Female; wk4: Gender Relations (2): Dual Gender and Gender Change; wk5: Gender Relations (3): Homoeroticism; wk6: The Body in Society (1): The Medical Discourse; wk7: The Body in Society (2): The Religious Discourse; wk8: Reflections and Outlook.