

MEDITERRANEAN INTERACTIONS: Greeks and Non-Greeks in the Eastern Mediterranean and the Black Sea, 10th.-4th. c. B.C.

Trinity Term 2018: Ancient History Seminars, Tuesdays at 4pm.
Lecture Theatre, Iouannou Centre, 66 St. Giles, Oxford.

Organisers: Irad Malkin and Rosalind Thomas.

Please note time. All welcome. There will be a chance to meet speakers over drinks after each seminar. If anyone would like to join the speaker for dinner, please let one of the organizers know.

Wk. 1. 24th. April. A Fantalkin (Tel Aviv). Greek and Carian mercenaries in the Neo-Assyrian, Neo-Babylonian, Near Eastern and Egyptian armies, 8th.-6th.c. B.C. [wording tbc]

Wk. 2. 1st. May, Adrian Robu (Paris): The Megarian Apoikiai and their Local Environment: institutions and religious practices

Wk. 3. 8th. May: Zosia Archibald (Liverpool): The rich brocade of liminal zones: Thrace and the Thermaic Gulf.

Wk. 4. 15th. May: Alexandra Villing (British Museum): Greek-Egyptian Interactions: Naukratis and beyond.

Wk. 5. 22nd. May: Charles Smith (Oxford): Athenian Apodemia in the late 6th.c.: Athenians and the margins of the Greek world.

Wk. 6. 29th. May: Ian Rutherford: Luwians, Greeks and Phoenicians in Cilicia 10th-7th centuries BC: The problem of the kingdom of Hiyawa".

Wk. 7. 5th. June: Madalina Dana (Paris I Sorbonne): "Greek culture and Scythian politics: new considerations about the ring of the king Skyles".

Wk. 8. 12th. June. Denise Demetriou (San Diego): "Trading Diplomats: Phoenician Trade Associations in the fourth-century Mediterranean."

Prof. Irad Malkin
Prof. Rosalind Thomas (Rosalind.thomas@balliol.ox.ac.uk).